Kay Stammers

*Presenter/Producer
Newsreader/Journalist
Filmmaker/Author*

“Professional, experienced, intelligent, credible, authoritative, down to earth, natural, sincere, genuine, friendly, direct ...”

These were the most common words used to describe Kay in a 90s market research study of women TV viewers aged 25 - 44, in which she was compared to other prominent female TV presenters, scoring the highest rating in 2 consecutive studies.*

A senior journalist with over 25 years experience in mainstream television, including live newsreading, Kay has reported and presented for all five networks. She's also a multi award-winning documentary maker, video producer, freelance journalist and copywriter, and author of five non-fiction books.

Kay is best known nationally for her strong presence in News and Current Affairs, including a five year stint as reporter with Nine News, first female host of Seven's late night news program Newsworld, and Health & Medical reporter for Ten. In addition she worked as EP and presenter of English Language programs at SBS, consumer reporter for Nine's Burke's Backyard, reporter/producer for ABC-TV Arts & Entertainment shows State of the Arts, Billboard and TVTV, and Parenting reporter/producer for Foxtel's The LifeStyle Channel.

Over the past decade she has specialised in health and medical education, winning awards for her programs on Alzheimer's Disease, breast cancer, pancreatic cancer and meningococcal disease.
